Our criteria has been adjusted due to federal and state shortages of the Regeneron medication supplies.

- Chronic lung disease (e.g., chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, moderate-to-severe asthma, interstitial lung disease, cystic fibrosis, pulmonary hypertension)
- Sickle cell disease
- Neurodevelopmental disorders (e.g., cerebral palsy) or other conditions that confer medical complexity (e.g., genetic or metabolic syndromes, severe congenital anomalies)
- Medical-related technological dependence (e.g., tracheostomy, gastrostomy, positive pressure ventilation not related to COVID-19)

In addition, other medical conditions or factors may also place individual patients at high risk, and authorization of Casirivimab + Imdevimab under the EUA is not limited to only those medical conditions or factors listed above. Health care providers are advised to consider the benefit-to-risk of an individual patient.*

Vaccination status has no bearing on eligibility to receive Regeneron therapies.

Positive COVID test results and physician orders may be faxed to: (478) 975-6776
